

GUIDANCE PROGRAM

IJ

The School District of Neillsville shall maintain a guidance and counseling program which will serve all students and help them with emotional, educational, career, civic, and social development. The program shall be developmental in nature. Its success shall not be attributed to any one person.

Principals and guidance counselors shall be responsible for the screening of all new students, the maintenance of student records, the testing program, and student scheduling.

The school district shall not discriminate in the methods, practices and materials used for counseling, evaluating and testing students on the basis of sex, race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation or physical, mental, emotional or learning disability or handicap.
